

Working to Ensure Equity & Fairness in the Economic Recovery

PolicyLink Recovery Briefing Series

Featuring some of the nation's foremost anti-poverty experts, the bi-weekly "Demand Equity Now" call-in series shows advocates how to build the nation's economic recovery on a foundation of shared prosperity and fairness.

RSVP and see announced speakers at PolicyLink.org
Audio of each session will be available at EquityBlog.org

- May 8: "Talking with the Media about Equity and Recovery"
- May 22: "The Outlook for Health and Wellness in the Recovery"
- June 5: "What's the Rural Agenda in the Economic Recovery Agenda?"
- June 19: "The Green Recovery: How Communities Are Faring So Far?"

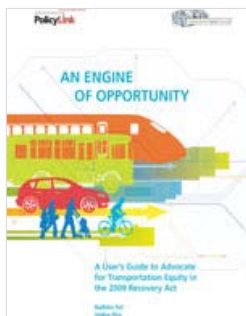

Earlier sessions included "Ending Poverty and Building Equity in the Federal Budget" and "Achieving a Fair, Accountable and Transparent Recovery." Audio available on EquityBlog.org.

PolicyLink Stimulus User's Guides

Co-produced with Green for All, Bringing Home the Green Recovery: A User's Guide to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act offers tangible, up-to-date information and ideas for using and securing Recovery Act dollars to help expand opportunity in low-income communities and communities of color.

Available for download at PolicyLink.org

Co-produced with the Transportation Equity Network, An Engine of Opportunity: A User's Guide to Advocate for Transportation Equity in the 2009 Recovery Act shows transportation advocates how to ensure stimulus infrastructure funding goes to communities that need it most.

Available for download at PolicyLink.org