

Organization	Region/County	Organization Description
AAPI Equity Alliance	Los Angeles	AAPI Equity Alliance (formerly, A3PCON) is a coalition of community-based organizations that advocates for the rights and needs of the Asian and Pacific Islander American community.
Action Council of Monterey County, Inc.	Central Coast	Provides mission-driven start-ups the guidance needed to address complex community problems and create social equity change.
Alianza Coachella Valley	Inland Empire	Previously known as Building Healthy Communities, their work is built around leadership development and an understanding that healthy and economically prosperous communities exist only when community is represented in all decisions. They work to make people active players in the processes shaping policies and public funding priorities.
Anti-Recidivism Coalition	Sacramento, SD, Bay Area, IE, LA	Supports formerly incarcerated folks through rehabilitating and transitional programs. Also advocate for a more just criminal legal system.
CA Association for Microenterprise Opportunity (CAMEO)	San Francisco	CAMEO is California's statewide micro-business network made up of over 395 organizations, agencies, and individuals dedicated to furthering Micro-Business development in California with small and micro-business financing such as loans and credit, technical assistance and business management training. They build capacity and expand resources for their members.
California Calls Education Fund	LA	Convened the Million Voters Project, augment minorities political power.
California Heritage Indigenous Research Project (CHIRP)	Sacramento, Nevada	Non-profit guided by the Nevada City Rancheria Tribal Council. With financial and community support, CHIRP seeks to "creatively mimic" programs that will support the preservation, protection and perpetuation of the Nisenan people and their culture into the future, while advocating for the restoration of the Nevada City Rancheria's federal recognition.
California Healthy Nail Salon Collaborative (CHNSC)	Bay Area, LA	Founded in 2005, the California Healthy Nail Salon Collaborative is a statewide grassroots organization that addresses health, environmental, reproductive justice, and other social issues faced by its low-income, female, Vietnamese immigrant and refugee workforce. Using a multi-tiered approach that blends community organizing, grassroots policy advocacy, and community-based research, the Collaborative builds power of the nail salon community to develop solutions that benefit the nail salon workforce, their families, small immigrant and refugee owned businesses, and their communities.
Central Valley Community Foundation	Central San Joaquin Valley	The only accredited community foundation in the region, they drive strategic investments and offer best-in-class charitable tools to connect donors to the causes they care most about. As a philanthropic financial institution with $140 Million in assets under management, they partner with the community and multiply every dollar for big, measurable change.
Chaffey College Foundation	IE	Two-year community college with three campuses serving San Bernardino County.
Chinese Progressive Association	Bay Area	Supports working class immigrant Chinese communities in SF through education, organizing, and leadership.
CIELO-Community for Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Leadership	Orange County	A grassroots organization that empowers hardworking Orange County residents to pursue economic self-sufficiency. They accomplish this by setting their clients on a path to success through two key areas: Entrepreneurship and Upward Mobility. Their goal is to equip clients with an entrepreneurial mindset, along with the passion, resourcefulness, and hard work that go into entrepreneurship, to give them an advantage as they launch small businesses and/or grow in their careers.
City Heights Community Development Corporation	San Diego	They partner with residents in enhancing the quality of life in City Heights. They do work around affordable housing, resident services, transportation & planning, economic development, eviction prevention, new roots community farm, and business improvement.
Communities Development Technologies Center (CDTech)	Los Angeles	A nonprofit organization with 20 years of experience in South LA, CDTech combines grassroots participation with strategic policy understanding. CDTech is a catalyst for change in South LA, activating and focusing the potential of residents and businesses. They equip them with the training, strategies and programs they need to be leaders and organizers for neighborhood improvement and economic growth.

Organization	Region/County	Organization Description
Community Foundation of San Joaquin	Northern San Joaquin Valley	Through dedicated initiatives, they bring together resources and partners from their community, and nation, to tackle their county's most pressing challenges and promising opportunities.
Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR)	Orange/ LA	A nonprofit, grassroots civil rights and advocacy organization. CAIR is America's largest Muslim civil liberties organization, with affiliate offices nationwide. CAIR seeks to empower American Muslims and encourage their participation in political and social activism.
Dolores Huerta Foundation	Kern	On a mission to inspire and organize communities to build volunteer organizations empowered to pursue social justice. Their social justice grassroots organizing work is focused on Civic Engagement, Education Equity, Health and Safety, and LGBTQIA+ Equality.
Flintridge Center	LA	Conduct programs that include trauma-informed youth diversion and development services and comprehensive adult reintegration services.
4th Second	Bay Area	Strive for transformative change, driving systemic shifts towards a more just and equitable world. 4th Second is committed to making a lasting impact by addressing the root causes of social challenges through deep understanding of our community's needs. Have work focused in five program areas; access to care, environment, food security, housing security, and inspiration.
Friendship House Association of American Indians	Bay Area	Provide services help American Indians and Alaskan Natives achieve and sustain recovery through a peer-to-peer support model. They use an American Indian & Alaskan Native culturally based model built through the expertise of individuals with similar lived experience.
Imperial Valley Equity & Justice Coalition	Southern Border, IE	In a county with only one primary-care physician for every 4,410 residents, compared to one for every 1,270 residents statewide, they are committed to building local leadership, expanding capacity and reach, and leading initiatives that reduce inequities among historically excluded Latinx communities. They are advocates for community empowerment, social & environmental justice, and health equity. Their vision is to eliminate health and social disparities and inequities among the Latinx community in Imperial Valley (IV) and build the next generation of Latinx community leaders.
Inland Empire Black Worker Center	IE	Builds a united voice and powerful position for Black working class communities in Southern California.
Inland Empire Growth & Opportunity (IEGO)	IE	A regional cross-sector, bi-county collaborative, committed to growing middle-class jobs and pursuing inclusive economic development to improve the quality of life for all Riverside and San Bernardino County residents. IEGO's work focuses on building industry clusters in Sustainable Logistics, Cybersecurity, Advanced Manufacturing and Green Technology.
Inland Empire Labor Institute (IELI)	IE	Is the non profit wing of IE Labor Council. IELI partners with economic, social, and environmental organizations to prioritize the needs of workers in uplifting communities and families. They see labor unions as a key force for promoting workers' rights, economic justice, and democratic participation, and support regional development that is socially equitable, ecologically sustainable, and culturally diverse.
Jewish Vocational & Career Counseling Service JVS	Bay Area	Provides work readiness training and placement support services to prepare folks for career-path jobs. Prioritizing folks who have been historically excluded from educational and employment opportunities.
La Familia Counseling Center	Sacramento	Provides multicultural counseling, outreach and support services to low income, at-risk youth and families in Sacramento County. Their mission is to improve the quality of life for at-risk youth and families of diverse backgrounds by offering multicultural counseling, support and outreach services and programs to help families to overcome adversity, to become empowered, and to succeed in their lives.
LAUNCH	IE	Increasing California community colleges resources.
Los Angeles Black Worker Center (LABWC)	LA	Increase access to quality jobs, reduce employment discrimination, and improve industries that employ Black workers through action and unionization.

Organization	Region/County	Organization Description
Los Angeles Brotherhood Crusade, Black United Fund, Inc	LA	Enrich the lives of low-income, economically disadvantaged, and under-served South LA county individuals by promoting empowerment, social justice, racial equity, social change and economic sovereignty.
Nevada Sierra Connecting Point Public Authority	Sacramento, Nevada	Connecting Point (originally the Nevada-Sierra Regional IHSS Public Authority) has been connecting people to In-Home-Support-Services and IHSS employment in Nevada, Sierra, and Plumas Counties. Mission to support community in making connections that enhance the lives of its members.
North Bay Jobs with Justice	Bay Area	Grassroots coalition of labor and community organizations building power and advocating for economic and racial justice for workers on the frontlines of climate change.
Organizacion en California Lideres Campesinas	Central Coast, Oxnard	Principal goal is to form a network of communication throughout the state of California to promote the development of a united effort between campesinas and other groups who advocate the rights of the campesina community. Farmworker women have been the leaders of many grassroots and mobilizing efforts to improve the lives of farmworker communities. Lideres Campesinas provides these long-time leaders and activists with the opportunity to coordinate their work statewide and has built collectives so that campesinas may become agents of change and be a more effective unified voice.
Oroville Southside Community Improvement Association (OSCIA)	Northern State, Butte	Does outreach to those who are homeless and who are food insecure, as well as a variety of other programs in the Oroville Community. (also helpful: https://projects.propublica.org/nonprofits/organizations/270170361)
Pilipino Workers Center of Southern California	LA	Secures the dignity and safety of the Pilipinx community in Southern California and builds labor leaders in the domestic worker industry and movement.
Roots Community Health Center	Bay Area, Alameda	Uplifts those impacted by systemic inequalities and poverty. They accomplish this through medical and behavioral health care, health navigation, workforce enterprise, housing, outreach, and advocacy.
Small Business Majority Foundation, Inc	Redwood Coast, Inland Empire, Central Valley, LA, Bay Area	Empower diverse entrepreneurs to build a thriving and equitable economy, and support small businesses.
Stanislaus Equity Partners	Northern San Joaquin Valley, Stanislaus	Works to connect neighbors, resources, and opportunities. As a Community Development Corporation, STEP works to empower Stanislaus residents with access to asset building opportunities through housing, small business services and affordable lending.
Taller San Jose Hope Builders	Orange County	Mentors and does job skill trainings for young adults in Orange county.
UC Berkeley Labor Center	Bay Area	Public service and outreach program of Berkeley's Institute for Research on Labor and Employment.
UC Merced Labor Center	Eastern Sierra	Conducts research and education on issues of community, labor and employment, in the San Joaquin Valley and beyond
The United Way California Capital Region	Sacramento	For the past 100 years, United Way California Capital Region has brought people together to fight poverty by building stronger, healthier and more compassionate communities. They do so through their square one approach; helping children excel in school, invest in families, and strengthening schools.
The Utility Reform Network (TURN)	Bay Area, San Francisco	TURN works with state and Federal legislators, supports policy development, organizes communities, and galvanizes allies in order to hold utility companies accountable and be an advocate for utility consumers.
Vision y Compromiso	Bay Area, LA, Central Valley	Improve community well-being by supporting promotoras, trusted and respected community leaders.
West Fresno Family Resource Center	Central San Joaquin Valley, Fresno	Nonprofit organization, serves residents of one of the poorest metropolitan communities in California's Central Valley, Southwest Fresno and beyond. Its mission is: "to empower and support the West Fresno community to achieve optimal health and well-being." A trusted and respected community partner with a strong record of providing culturally and linguistically effective, neighborhood and community-based services.
Working Partnerships USA	Bay Area	Build the capacity of workers and low-income communities to lead and govern regional economy.